

BUILD THE REVOLUTION ON THE AFRICAN STREETS:

Contribute to South Africa's Zabalaza anarchist paper

Friends and Comrades,

Zabalaza: revolutionary anarchism for southern Africa is a non-sectarian anarchist/ libertarian communist newspaper.

Distributed at rallies, left bookshops and within the new anti-privatisation movement in South Africa, as well as in several other African countries, Zabalaza is a platform for radical anti-capitalist analysis and strategy.

Zabalaza is open to contributions from the anti-statist left. If you stand for direct action, despise electioneering, and want a radical social change that does not simply replace our current oppressors with a new group of politicians, we want to hear from you.

We need YOUR help.

You can contribute to the next issue of this red-and-black project:

1. Write - send news, views and reviews of the fight against the neo-liberal class war on the poor. What are we fighting? How are we fighting? Where are we going?
2. Distribute - Take bundles to sell to your friends, fellow workers and community organisation. Special rates for African countries.
3. Translate - We need people to translate articles. We can do translations for most South African languages, but need people to help with Swahili, Shona, and other common regional languages.

If you can help out in any way, you can contact the editors at zabalaza@union.org.za or bikisha@mail.com or call 083-572-8436 (Joburg) or 073 167 4581 (Durban).

Against capitalism, imperialism and racism!
Stop the neo-liberal offensive with working class direct action!
Against the state - for libertarian communism!

A joint Zabalaza Books/Bikisha Media Collective project

"Zabalaza" no. 1 is online at <http://www.struggle.ws/africa/safrica/zabamag.html>
Issue no. 1 contains articles covering GEAR, the Need for a Revolutionary Anarchist Federation, Imperialism, the World Bank and Africa, the AIDS Crisis in South Africa and Lessons from Zimbabwe.